

Proposed Organisational Structure

The Board consists of the elected members, and is responsible for providing broad direction for the organisation, and monitoring the activities of the Committees.

Officers must be persons that are also elected members of the Board.

Proposed Activities

Committee members will operate to fulfill the functions listed in this level. The committees will obtain approval prior to making decisions.

The committees may consist of Board members, as well as non-Board members, and other volunteers.

Where specialised services are required, the committees (with approval from the Board) may also engage paid staff.

committees will also collaborate on individual projects, as required.

Note: the above is only a five year plan and not intended to be wholly implemented immediately.
